Dear Sir, Charleston 20: Oct: 1791.

Much time has elapsed since I recd: your favor enquiring into the Situation of your suit ag^t Genl: Bull. Several causes contributed to postpone that suit till this year and since the trial much business & much indisposition have combined to prevent my communicating the result to you - at the Trial the ~~following~~ evidence a copy of w^{ch} I enclose You was given & was considered conclusive, and the Judges & Jury were ready to decide ag^t you; upon w^{ch} I submitted to a nonsuit & thereby approved to

to you the right of trying the question again if ever you sh^d choose to do so after considering the force & tendency of the Testimony of W: Bull -

I hope you have restored your health better than you formerly did & that W: & Jean your family are in the enjoyment of theirs -

I am Sir
with regard
Your most Obedt.
Henry W. Deshayes
